Maidens tennis entries excel in Athens tourney March 8

Five girls from the Frankston High School tennis team went to the Athens Tournament on Wednesday, March 8, after just starting practice, and came away with competitive performances, according to Tennis Coach Christi Coker.

The doubles team of Lysie Bizzell and Bandy Bizzell won first in girls doubles, defeating a team from Emory Rains 8-0, a team from Edgewood 8-6 and then defeating a team from Crawford 8-6. Kaylah and Morgan Redic competed well in girls doubles, the coach said.

Meanwhile, Ja'Shaylyn (Shay) Hatton made it to the Quarterfinals in girls singles, winning over a girl from Emory Rains 8-6 before losing to a Malakoff girl 6-8.

Next up for the Frankston team will be the Troup Tournament on March 21-22.
