

Formidable Martins Mill downs 7th, 8th grade Maidens Dec. 13

The Frankston seventh grade and eighth grade Maidens fell to their Martins Mill counterparts in 19-2A district games on Monday, Dec. 13 at Martins Mill, according to Myka Daniels, middle school coach.

The seventh graders lost 30-5 and the eighth graders fell 50-11.

The seventh grade Maidens scored 4 points in the first half and only 1 in the second half against the formidable Martins Mill team.

Scoring for the seventh graders were Harli Halfpenny with 3, include a free throw, and Morgan Redic with 2.

The eighth graders scored 6 points in the first half and 5 points in the second half against their Martins Mill opponents.

For the eighth graders, three players scored 3 points: Kylie Morton, Hailey Pizano and Ashley Fridinger. Bailey Ball scored 2 points.

The two middle school teams will have an open date on Jan. 6 and then play in the non-district Kerens Tournament on Jan. 8. They will continue the second round of district competition hosting Kerens on Jan. 13 with the seventh grade game beginning at 5 p.m.
